WHAT IS CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE?

Child sexual abuse is any sexual activity with a child - whether in the home by a caretaker, in a day care situation, in a foster/residential setting, or in any other setting, including on the street by a person unknown to the child. The abuser may be an adult, an adolescent, or another child, provided the child is at least four years older than the victim.

Child sexual abuse may be violent or non-violent. All child sexual abuse is an exploitation of a child's vulnerability and powerlessness in which the abuser is fully responsible for the action.

Child sexual abuse is criminal behavior that involves children in sexual behaviors for which they are not personally, socially, and developmentally ready.

Child sexual abuse includes behaviors that involve touching and non-touching aspects,

- 6) If the offender is the pastor or other person holding a credentialed ministry position in the church, contact the regional conference office or the denominational Department of the Ministry and make your complaint known. Ministers holding credentials in the Evangelical Covenant Church will be disciplined according to the Rules for the Ordered Ministry of the Evangelical Covenant Church.

The conference superintendent and the Executive Director of the Department of the Ministry investigate complaints. You may be asked to meet with them. An advocate or support person of your choosing may go with you. It is the intention of the Evangelical Covenant Church to provide care for persons who were abused or harassed and for those who report such abuse.

The conference superintendent and the Executive Director of the Department of Ministry will inform you about the process of investigation that follows any complaint. Following your verified complaint, the offender will come under the care and discipline of the Board of the Ministry. If in this process a pastor is removed from ministry, the congregation will be informed of the nature of the offense. Every effort will be made to protect the confidentiality of the parties involved.

Every allegation of sexual offense or molestation should be investigated promptly and thoroughly by officials and reported to the church insurance company immediately. If an allegation is factual, the relationship with the worker should be terminated immediately. It is unlikely the problem will ever be resolved by relying on promises of the employee or volunteer to reform. Failure to take remedial action will make a claim difficult to defend.

INSURANCE

The church shall obtain sufficient level of liability insurance coverage that covers. child abuse and sexual misconduct claims, If available, the church should have the levels of coverage. which are required for limited immunity.

CONCLUSION

Churches need to be prepared. This is the legal reason for creating safety policies, but there's a deeper, more significant reason - to protect children. Policies are only printed expressions of the value placed on children. If the only reason for safety policies is to protect the organization. the church has missed Jesus' passion for children.

Some people may think that our church is too small to worry about these safety problems or that our church " knows" everyone. Remember that it's much easier to make plans and develop safety polices as a means of prevention, rather than wait until they are needed as a reaction to all abuse case.

Some churches tend to take the biblical concept of trusting God to an extreme. They think nothing bad can happen to Christians. Although Jesus does promise many things about His care and provision for us, we must not be unwise regarding children's safety. When Jesus- sent His disciples out on their first missionary venture, He sent them out in pairs and told them they were like sheep among wolves. He also told them that bad things would happen to them, but that He would be with them (Matthew 10:16-19).

There is no automatic protection from evil for Christians. We're to watch and be ready. Accidents will always happen. There win always be unforeseen circumstances that need to be handled. Therefore, churches should build sturdy safety-policy fire blacks into the walls of its ministry to protect children.

Primera Iglesia del Pacto Evangélico desires to be "a church that cares through the implementation of the above policy- Adoption of these provisions will enable Primera Iglesia del Pacto Evangélico to provide a more safe- and secure environment for each individual of our church family and its guests.
